TWO TOUGH TRAMPS.

A Man and Woman Ordered Out of the County by Squire Grant.

Yesterday morning Constable Mitchell of Washington was sent for to arrest a couple of tramps, a man and a woman, who had taken possession of a part of Colonel W. B. Baldwin's place.

They had spread their camp there, and Colonel Baldwin objected and asked them to get out of his premises.

He was met with a volley of threats that would have made the Argonauts blush.

Finally it was found necessary to appeal to the law, and when Constable Mitchell arrived on the scene he immediately scooped them and took them before Squire Grant, who gave them time to vacate the county or go and take a recreation in one of the stone quarries and register at the Melville Hotel.

They took the straight path out of the county, and the last seen of them they were headed toward the state of Lewis.

LARGELY ATTENDED.

Immense Concours at the Funeral of the Late George H. Heiser.

The funeral of the late George H. Heiser took place from his late residence, 18 West Second, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Religious services were conducted by the Rev. F. W. Harrop of the M. C. Church and the Rev. Dr. John Barbour of the First Presbyterian Church.

The large residence was filled with sorrowing friends, and the profusion of flowers bestowed the occasion in which the deceased was held by his donors.

The Oddfellows and Masons, under the Marshaling of Colonel M. C. Russell, had charge of the remains, and at the grave the impressive burial charge of the Oddfellows was delivered by Past Grand Jacob Miller of Ringgold Lodge, whilst that of the Masonic Fraternity was delivered by Past Master James H. Sallee.

The line of carriages was one of the longest ever seen in this city.

Nearly 30 members of the Orders were in line, and the members of the Board of Council and the city officers attended in a body.

The procession moved East as far as Matthews's Switch where the streets were lined.

With much thoughtfulness Mr. George S. Hancock of the Fifth Ward provided a beautiful supply of drinking water for the Oddfellows and Masons.

Dr. Charles Tabb Pearce's Successful Experiments.

WONDERS OF LIQUID AIR.

The Cincinnati Enquirer gives the result of some recent experiments made by Dr. Charles Tabb Pearce, son of Mr. Charles Burgess Pearce of this city.

Not since the discovery of antiseptic and tuberculin has the medical world been so stirred as by recent experiments made with liquid air.

The results obtained thus far have been nothing short of miraculous, and the promise is held out that greater successes can be obtained when the full power of this new remedy is known.

Dr. Charles T. Pearce, Clinical Lecturer of Dermatology at the Cincinnati College of Medicine and Surgery, with Dr. A. Campbell White of New York, recently made a number of highly gratifying experiments with liquid air.

Dr. Pearce's Dermatology Clinic at Bloomer Hospital, New York, and in the dermatological service of Dr. George H. Fox at the Vanderbilt Clinic. Speaking of these experiments:

"It is as if a local anesthetic was certainly most satisfactory: under the anesthesia produced by the intense cold minor operations were performed successfully, no injury being done to the surrounding tissue by the spray of air used. The application is painless, save for a slight tingling sensation when it is first applied."

"It certainly appears to be a specific in all forms of neuritis. In neuritis of the air applied from the exit of the nerve, and the relief from pain is instant. The cases experienced on several weeks ago declare there has been no return of the symptoms. In intercostal and facial neuritis the same success has been met. Dr. White says that in no case that he has treated has there been a return of the symptoms. In intercostal and facial neuritis with herpes zoster, the air applied to the spinal end of the nerve affected caused prompt relief of the pain, and the treatment has been met by the lesions themselves drying up and disappearing."

"A suppurating gland, in which the suppuration had just started, was treated, with prompt relief from pain and speedy recovery from the condition. The extension of the incision in the suppurating gland, promptly controlled by applying the bulb of the spray over the infected area until the temperature of the face fell very cold to the hand."

"I saw a case of facial erysipelas of several days' standing which was treated this way. The treatment was given on Monday, no other treatment being resorted to. On the patient's visit to the dispensary three days later the inflammation had entirely subsided, and the patient said she had suffered no pain from the time of application."

"In a case of epithelioma of the face the improvement has been most satisfactory. I am satisfied that it will take several years to make any statement as to the permanency of the results in these cases, but in the case I saw the improvement was such as to give us encouragement that there is certainly more hope in the treatment than in the knife."

"Tough marks, which are a source of discomfort to so many people, are quickly removed by liquid air. In case of naevus, after three applications with spray of liquid air, the tumor had entirely disappeared, the scar had been hardly perceptible."

"In carbuncles and furuncles it seems to open a new and very quick way of relieving these troublesome afflictions. In a case of carbuncle, about the size of a hen's egg, situated on the back of the neck, after the pus had been removed the carbuncle was completely frozen with liquid air spray. Three days later it was reduced one-half in size, and the inflammatory process was aborted. To insure success another application was made, and on his visit to the dispensary three days later the carbuncle had entirely disappeared, leaving only a small, healthy, granulating ulcer about the size of a ten-cent piece. The patient said, save for the hour after the first application of the air, that he had been entirely free from pain."

"Liquid air is applied with a spray as shown in the cut where no loss of tissue is desirable and the spray when the removal of tissue is desired, as in the case of a naevus or wart."

"A large number of varicose, perforating and sluggish ulcers of the leg were also treated with the spray, and the ulcers quickly healed to healthy granulation, the spray having all the effects of a caustic without its attendant inflammation. In a number of these cases an artificial skin seemed to quickly form over the surface of the ulcers. These cases healed most promptly than others. It seems impossible to explain the phenomena, and experiments are now in progress to determine definitely just what it is."

"These few random cases illustrate the success of the experiments with this new and mysterious medium of treatment. Few more extensive experiments will be carried on by Dr. White at Charity Hospital, Blackwell's Island, where there are a great number of chronic cases of skin diseases that will resist all forms of treatment, and have soverely tried the virtues of liquid air."

In addition to its curative virtues liquid air also has the use of cheapness. As made by the Tripler process a gallon of it does not cost nearly as much as so much mineral water. Its temperature is 322 degrees Fahrenheit below zero. It contains nitrogen and oxygen, with a variable quantity of carbon dioxide. It is an ideal cooling fluid and when filtered resembles in color the atmosphere as seen in the distance on a clear day. Viewed in an ordinary receptacle the fluid is boiling, giving off a white vapor. It feels dry and cold, leaving no moisture on the hand, though a sensation of burning or tingling is felt.

In applying the liquid air to the human body with the spray or swab the skin at once becomes bloodless and perfectly white. Its use in medicine, that is in pulmonary diseases or for the reduction of fevers, are not yet clear, but the few experiments made in that direction promise much, and it is safe to say that in the future it will play a conspicuous part in the treatment of human ills.

SHIPS WRECKED.

Beach From Kennakoot to Hatteras, N. C., Strewn With Spars, Masts and Wreckage.

ECHOES OF THE GREAT HURRICANE.

No Such Damaging Result Has Attended a Storm on That Coast in a Quarter of a Century.

Thirty People Are Known to Have Lost Their Lives—Thirty-Five Shipwrecked Seamen, in a Vicious Condition, Reached Norfolk, Tuesday.

NOFOLK, Va., Aug. 23.—Thirty-five shipwrecked seamen, who had nothing in the world but the few scraps of torn clothes on their backs, some injured and all miserable, arrived here Tuesday from Hatteras, N. C. From them it is learned that the recent hurricane, which sent so many people to death and destroyed vast estates in Porto Rico, added another chapter to its horrors in a little stretch of beach from Kennakoot to Hatteras, N. C.

Thirty people were known to have lost their lives in this district, which is only eighteen miles long, and the beach is strewn with spars, masts and other wreckage. The sailors say 11 vessels are ashore on the coast between Hatteras and New River inlet. No such damaging result has attended a storm on the coast in the past quarter of a century. Waves ran mountain high and the wind howled menacingly several days and nights at a 75-mph velocity. That no more lives were lost in the vicinity of Hatteras is considered by the survivors nothing less than a miracle.

Among those who arrived Tuesday were two of the crew of the barken the Priscilla, Capt. Benjamin R. Springsteen, of Baltimore. The Priscilla, last broken in the coast of Gulf Sholl 15 miles north of Cape Hatteras. There were four fatalities shortly after the Priscilla went ashore, the captain's wife being washed overboard and drowned within 10 minutes from the time the bark struck. The other who lost their lives were the captain two sons, aged 24 and 12 years, a M. Goldenbourn, connected with the Lee family and a relative of the vessel's owners, C. Martin Stewart, Jr.

Capt. Springsteen escaped from the wreck with the remainder of the crew but is still at Hatteras suffering from a wound in his chest. The Priscilla, left Baltimore for Rio August 12 with a general cargo. All of the vessel's crew were injured more or less.

The schooner Robert W. Day, Capt. Olsen, left Philadelphia August 14 for Jacksonville, Fla., with coal. She was partially washed away as soon as she struck the beach about 6 p. m. Thursday. The crew of six were rescued by life savers.

The schooner Florence Randall, Capt. Cavalier, was bound from Long Island to Charleston, S. C., with fertilizer. She struck Wednesday evening and was soon washed to pieces. The captain and crew of ten were rescued.

The schooner Minnie Bergen, Capt. Bowman, from Philadelphia to New York, Cuba, with iron and coal, went ashore Friday. Her crew of ten men were rescued.

All the men who came here were in charge by the United States men and started for Baltimore Tuesday night.

James Fitzharris Released.

DUBLIN, Aug. 23.—Earl Cadogan, lieutenant of Ireland, Tuesday signed the expected order releasing from Marlborough jail James Fitzharris, alias "Skin the Goat," who, in May 1883, was sentenced to penal servitude as an accomplice in the murder on May 6, 1883, in Phoenix park, Dublin, of Lord Frederick Cavendish, chief secretary for Ireland, and T. H. Burke, permanent under secretary, who were assassinated by stabbing by four men known as the "Invincibles."

The Pennsylvania Miners' Strike.

POTAMU, Aug. 15, via Nogales, Ariz., Aug. 23.—On Thursday Gen. Torres gave the order to advance on Vicam. Three sharp engagements were fought before the troops succeeded in entering the stronghold. The Indians met the government forces about a half mile from Vicam and fell back. They rallied again on the outskirts of the Pueblo and were driven in. The soldiers were advancing in the form of a half moon and when they reached Vicam it required a desperate struggle before the Indians were driven from their position. In three engagements two Mexicans were killed and 22 wounded, among the latter being two captains, Reynaldo Apertela and Aurelio, both of the 11th regiment. Forty Yaquis were killed and many of wounded is known to have been heavy.

Former Minister of War Is Liable to Arrest at Any Moment—He May Occupy a Cell Adjoining Capt. Dreyfus Before the Week Is Out.

RENNES, Aug. 23.—Tuesday was Maitre Labori's day at the Lycee, where Capt. Alfred Dreyfus is standing trial on the charge of treason. Labori was the central figure of the session. As the Dreyfus drama unfolded before the court, Tuesday forenoon, his tall, viking-like form, draped in a long black gown, bordered with ermine, sitting in front of the footlights, was the magnet which drew the attention of the court and the public until it fell at noon, drew all regards, not merely glances of curiosity, but the steady gaze of admiration. His mere presence brought brightness into the courtroom and fresh light into the proceedings.

Labori is a gladiator, and always speaks to touch his foe to the quick. Let there be the slightest opening in his opponent's defense and he thrusts home. Tuesday, when M. Demange found nothing to ask a witness, M. Labori's quick eye had discovered weak spots and he came forward with searching questions.

He opened Tuesday with an eloquent speech and the audience could have listened for an hour to his rich, melodious voice, modulated tones, and impassioned outbursts, accompanied by energetic and speaking gestures. Gens. Roget, Billot, Mercier and Boissere, with the other military witnesses were one after another recalled and put their heads together to exchange obviously disagreeable impressions as Labori piled the smaller military facts, who occupied the witness stand successfully Tuesday afternoon, converting questions.

Labori cornered Mercier on the Schneider letter, which the latter had used in evidence, and which Col. Schneider had repudiated as a forgery. The general was surprised when Labori suddenly demanded that Mercier be recalled. Evidently he hoped the tribunal would support him in refusing to explain how he got a copy of a letter which was of later date than his incumbency at the ministry of war. But Labori was not to be denied. He insisted that Mercier should give some explanation. Then, after hesitating, Mercier declared that he would assume all the responsibility attaching to his possession of the document.

This, as Labori intended it should be, was a demonstration of communication by the general staff of part, at least, of the secret dossier to an ordinary soldier, such as Mercier became immediately on leaving the ministry of war. Labori had attained his object and forced a confession of grave violation of law on the part of Gen. Mercier, he gave a smile of grim satisfaction and then added significantly to the judge's questions to put to Gen. Mercier.

The scene was highly dramatic and made a profound impression upon all the spectators.

Another series of questions put by M. Labori must have spent a very miserable evening, for as the result of this admission, and with the additional charge of communicating secret documents to the court-martial of 1894. In three engagements two Mexicans were killed and 22 wounded, among the latter being two captains, Reynaldo Apertela and Aurelio, both of the 11th regiment. Forty Yaquis were killed and many of wounded is known to have been heavy.

Labori asked how it was, if that was so, that Lajoux was still receiving monthly payments.

Commandant Rollin, completely taken aback, replied that a cessation of payments was under consideration. The impression conveyed by Labori's questions and the replies given was that Lajoux was being paid by the war office to keep out of the way in the interests of Esterhazy, whom Lajoux, in a letter read in court, offering revelations in the Dreyfus affair, indicated as real traitor. M. Labori's cross examination in this matter, therefore, was a distinct advantage to the accused.

Rotons Strikers.

ROCKY MOUNT, Aug. 23.—A body of 3,000 striking dock laborers, on being refused admission to a cemetery during the burial of the remains of a comrade Tuesday, returned to the city, crying "Long Live the Strike." Disturbances followed, and a number of the leaders were arrested. Tuesday morning there were fierce disorders, the people taking the side of the strikers. Many persons were injured, and the police made numerous arrests.

DISASTER AT SEA.

Norwegian Bark Wrecked Off the Florida Straits—One Sailor Safe—Fate of Others Unknown.

BAITMORE, Aug. 23.—Capt. Bode, of the steamship Catania, which arrived Tuesday from Baitmore, Cuba, reports: August 20, in latitude 30.38, longitude 73.38, rescued from a raft Arthur Neelass, of Gothenburg, one of the crew of the Norwegian bark Drog, from Pascoula, August 1, for Buenos Ayres. He says that on August 1, when off the Florida Straits, the Drog got into the center of a hurricane. The vessel was wrecked. The crew consisted of 15 men, eight of whom got on a raft formed by part of the deck of the disabled bark. After being tossed about for a short time by the high winds, the raft parted, six men remaining on one portion, while Neelass and the first mate clung to the other. Neelass lost sight of the other portion of the raft almost immediately. After drifting about five days without food, the captain picked up Neelass on a raft formed by part of the deck of the disabled bark. Neelass was more dead than alive on the 20th inst. Nothing is known of what became of the other members of the crew.

WHOLESALE ARRESTS.

Over Forty Negroes Behind the Bars at Little Rock, Suspected of the Outrages on White Women.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 23.—Over 40 Negroes were in the Pulaski county jail Tuesday night, as a result of a concerted effort on the part of the authorities to run down the men who a few days ago, committed assaults on five white women in this city. El Wright was positively identified Tuesday by Mrs. Kennedy after his assault, and was held to the grand jury without bail. Every precaution has been taken to prevent a lynching.

A large mass meeting of Negroes was held Tuesday night. The meeting was called by leading Negroes who are endeavoring to help run down and punish the guilty parties. They are opposed to lynching but are anxious to see the guilty ones publicly punished. The wholesale arrests Tuesday have aroused much excitement among a certain class of Negroes. Dealers say their sales Tuesday of arms and ammunition have been unprecedented, the majority of sales being made to Negroes.
